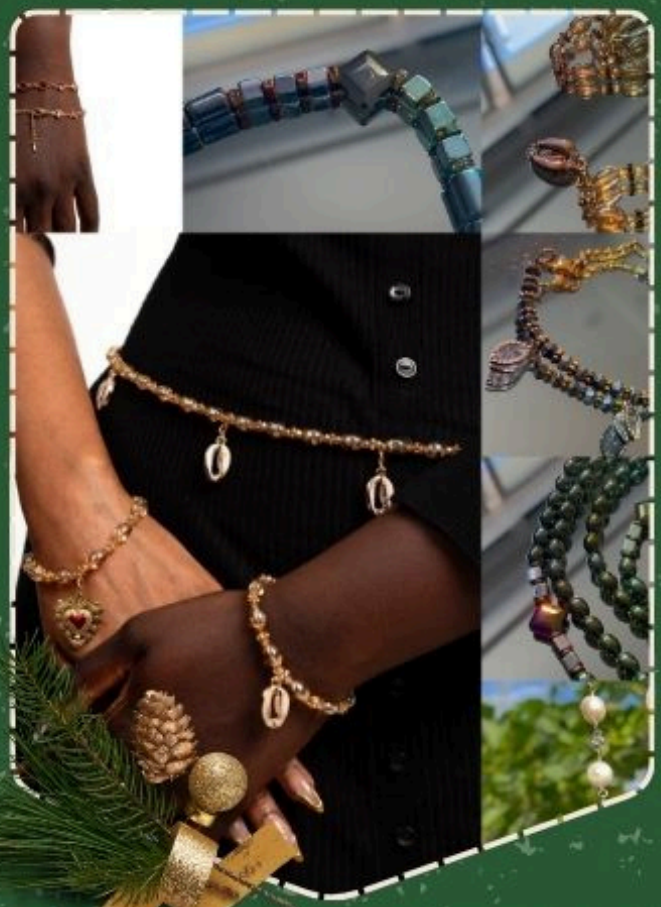
Three Rituals

Three Ways to Use Waist Jewelry as a New Year Ritual



Choose Colours Based on How You Want to Feel

Soft blues for calmness.
Deep golds for abundance.
Crystal tones for clarity and renewal.

Layer Strands for Milestones

Begin the year with one plant.
Add another to mark a personal win, a shift, or a new chapter.

Give Your Plant a Name

Assign an intention, affirmation, or meaning.
Pieces like Aji or Winter already hold cultural grounding — but you can layer your own story on top.

Share Your Ritual With Us

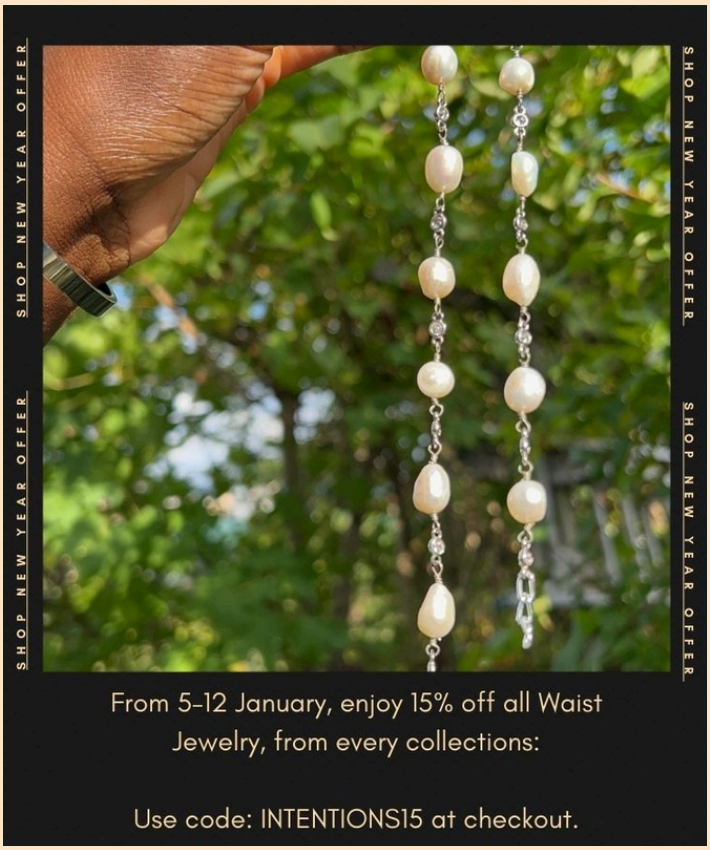
Each month, one featured customer receives a small thank-you discount.

This month, we're creating a New Year community highlight across TikTok and Instagram — featuring how real customers use waist jewelry in their rituals.

Share a short video or photo wearing your OneOhOne pieces and tag #OneOhOneIntentions.

With your permission, we may repurpose your clip into a longer story to inspire someone else beginning their own ritual.

Or Submit Here



Whether this is your first strand or your fifth, thank you for bringing OneOhOne into your year.

Your rituals, stories, and presence shape this brand more than you know.
